

Picture Books

For Babies/Toddlers

Acorns Everywhere!

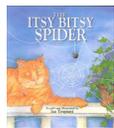

by Kevin Sherry

A squirrel hoards acorns but forgets where he hid them after being distracted by a berry-gathering bear.

Hush, Little Bunny

by David Ezra Stein

An endearing adaptation of the classic lullaby finds a papa bunny sharing messages of nurturing protection and comfort to his baby in and around their springtime burrow.

The Itsy Bitsy Spider

by Iza Trapani

The itsy-bitsy spider encounters a fan, a mouse, a cat, and a rocking chair as she makes her way to the top of a tree to spin

her web. (Readalong jT P)

Bedtime Bunnies

by Wendy Watson

Bunnies scamper, scurry, splash, zip, and snuggle as they get ready for bed.

Babies Can Sleep Anywhere

by Lisa Wheeler

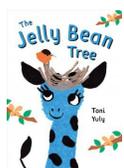

Soothing rhymes and gentle illustrations combine in a bedtime story that introduces the sleeping habits of animals and how they compare to those of human babies.

Look

by Fiona Woodcock

A brother and sister spend an exciting day at the zoo where they find balloons, baboons, kangaroos, and more.

The Jelly Bean Tree

by Toni Yuly

Jelly Bean the Giraffe was napping when a bird built a nest on her, but she remains very still and careful until the baby birds hatch.

How Do I Love Thee?

by Jennifer Adams

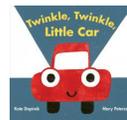

The author presents a lavish reimagining of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's famous sonnet that depicts three children sharing the love and joy of friendship while exploring the wonders of nature.

Everything

by Emma Dodd

An endearing mother koala and her baby illustrate the love parents feel for their children.

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Car

by Kate Dopirak

In this twist on the classic poem, a little red car takes a final cruise around town before going to bed.

Fly!

by Karl Edwards

An acclaimed illustrator presents a story about self-discovery through perseverance that encourages toddlers to get up and move to their own buggy groove!

Underground

by Denise Fleming

Collage illustrations and rhyming text spotlight the underground world of burrowing, tunneling and digging animals.

Chugga Chugga Choo Choo

by Emma Garcia

A little red train goes on a trip from the seaside to the forest, the city, the farm, and finally the station for a rest, where it is visited by a bunch of noisy birds.

Baby Day

by Jane Godwin

A baby's first birthday is celebrated with neighbors, including several baby friends who demonstrate how they can be shy, friendly, strong, sunny and more.

Park Ridge Public Library

20 S. Prospect Ave.

Park Ridge, Illinois 60068 | 847-825-3123

www.parkridgelibrary.org

Little Truck

by Taro Gomi

Little Truck goes on a big adventure.

(Board Book)

Orange Pear Apple Bear

by Emily Gravett

Explores concepts of color, shape, and food using only five simple words, as a bear juggles and plays.

Hop

by Jorey Hurley

A day in the life of a rabbit family, from sleeping to grazing to hiding from danger.

Wings

by Cheryl B. Klein

An author combines simple rhymes and vibrant artwork in a loving tribute to the challenges and triumphs of a baby bird's first flight.

A Little Book About Spring

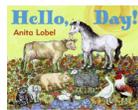

by Leo Lionni

Designed to introduce a spring-themed board book features budding trees, chirping birds, croaking frogs and more on spreads inspired by Lionni's collage-style artwork.

Hello, Day!

by Anita Lobel

Various animals greet the sunrise in their own unique voices, except for the owl who welcomes the night.

Sleep Like a Tiger

by Mary Logue

In a bedtime book for young readers, luminous illustrations with poetic and unadorned language frame the very simple-sounding question asked by a young girl, "Does everything in the world go to sleep?"

Tap the Magic Tree

by Christie Matheson

Invites the reader to tap, rub, touch, and wiggle illustrations to make an apple tree bloom, produce fruit, and lose its leaves.

A Book of Sleep

by Il Sung Na

While other animals sleep at night, some quietly and others noisily, some alone and others huddled together, a wide-eyed owl watches.

Shhh! This Book Is Sleeping

by Cedric Ramadier

A mouse informs children that the book they are holding is very sleepy and needs a bedtime story to help it fall asleep.

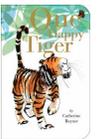

(Board Book)

One Happy Tiger

by Catherine Rayner

Counts the experiences of a lonely tiger who goes out and makes new friends.

(Board Book)

Goodnight, Goodnight, Construction Site

by Sherri Duskey Rinker

When their work is done for the day, a crane truck, a cement mixer, and other pieces of construction equipment make their way to their resting places and go to sleep.

The Bus Is For Us!

by Michael Rosen

A playful, rhyming story for small children who love things that go features an exuberant cast of kids who joyfully ride a bus that is designed for everyone to share.

Puppies and Piggies

by Cynthia Rylant

From napping to playing, rhyming text describes what baby animals love to do.